Notification

Sub: Award of Degrees in absentia to the graduating batch of 2020 without any requirement of online convocation.

The Senate at its 2020-2/58th meeting held on June 8, 2020 resolved to approve the recommendation of the Organizing Committee for conducting the 8th Convocation of the Institute on July 21, 2020 through online/virtual mode, in view of the uncertainty caused by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Subsequently, the Board was apprised about the decisions of the Senate at its 2020-1/38th meeting held on June 12, 2020, which have been taken on record and the same was concurred.

The Senate vide its resolution dated July 3, 2020 on circulation basis considered the requests received from the students of the graduating batch who are not in favour of conducting online Convocation, but desired to receive the Degrees, in absentia, and resolved as follows:

1. The e-copy of the record of the Degrees shall be signed by the DoAA, Registrar, Chairperson, Senate and placed before the Chairperson, BoG. However, these 216 graduating students shall be invited to attend the next Convocation, as per their convenience.
2. The Degrees and Medals shall be awarded to the graduating students in absentia without any need for conducting the online Convocation.
3. The Transcripts, Degree certificates and Medal certificates shall be issued by registered post to the students on payment of requisite fee as per the list recommended by the Senate and approved by the BoG for award of degrees and medals at its meeting held on June 12, 2020 vide item No. 38.15.
